

COMMUNITY DIALOGUE

The Legacy of Trayvon Martin: "So That He May Rest In Peace"

Presented by
First Unitarian Universalist Church
& Center for the Healing of Racism

Tuesday, July 23, 2013
7-9 PM

First Unitarian Universalist Church
Fireside Room
5200 Fannin St.
Houston, TX 77004

- Opening
- Our past in brief: seeking justice in the courts
- Our present in brief: how people are responding to the verdict
- The personal: in this sacred space we will be able to express feelings- anger, tears, truth, depression & confusion in a safe & respectful way.
- Our future: living whole in the U.S., what do we want as individuals?
- Closing

Facilitated by:
Cherry Steinwender
Founding Director, Center for the Healing of Racism
Rev. Kathleen Ellis
Minister, First Unitarian Universalist Church

