THE CENTER FOR THE HEALING OF RACISM

"Last Chance for Eden" screening & discussion

Wednesday March 20, 2013 1:00 -3:00 PM & 7:00 —9:00PM

Houston Community College Central Learning Hub/Science Building - Room 101 1300 Holman Street Houston, Texas 77004 Join the Center for the Healing of Racism as we recognize International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is observed annually on March 21st. Racial and ethnic discrimination occur on a daily basis, hindering progress for millions of people around the world. Racism and intolerance can take on various forms: from denying individuals the basic principles of equality to fueling ethnic hatred that may lead to genocide, all of which can destroy lives and fracture communities.

The Center is screening Lee Mun Wah, "Last Chance for Eden". Lee Mun Wah is an internationally renowned Chinese American documentary filmmaker, author, poet, Asian folkteller, educator, community therapist and master diversity trainer a nationally-acclaimed lecturer on diversity.

"Last Chance for Eden" is about nine men and women who intimately discuss racism and sexism in their personal and professional lives. They examine the impact of society's stereotypes on their lives in the workplace, in their personal relationships and within their families and in their communities. *Source: StirFry Seminars & Consulting

*The screening is free and open to the public however, donations are welcome. Register online at www.centerhealingracism.org by accessing the "Events" page.

^{*} Parking in multi-level garage across the street on the east side of building. Enter parking lot from La Branch Street.

^{*}Houston Community College System seeks to provide equal educational opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, or disability.