

Center for the Healing of Racism

International Day of the World's Indigenous People

Join us for a screening & discussion of

“PRIMAL MIND”

Wednesday August 7, 2013

7:00 – 9:00 PM

Thursday August 8, 2013

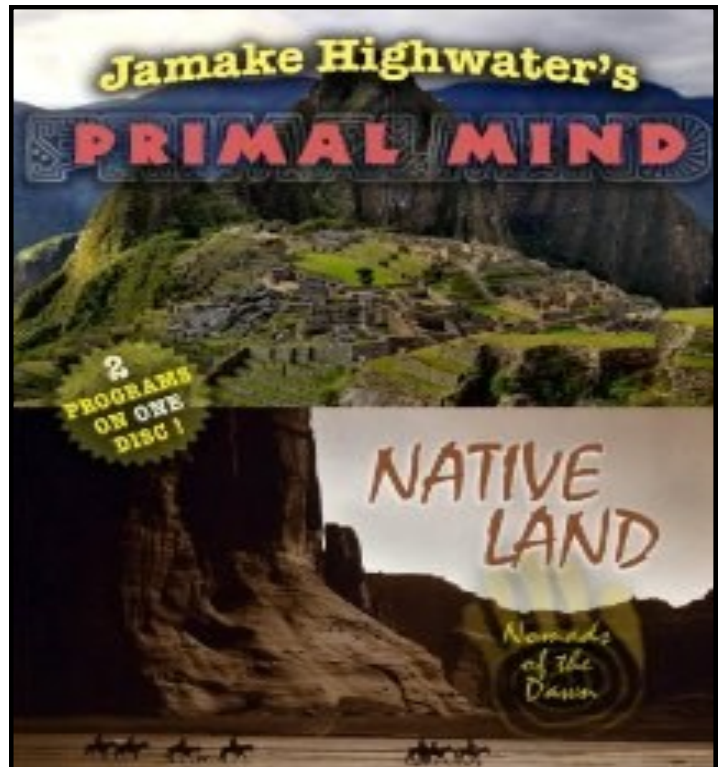

1:00 – 3:00 PM

Houston Community College Central

Learning Hub/Science Building

Room #101

1300 Holman Street Houston, TX 77004

Writer Jamake Highwater explores the differences in how American Indians and people of European heritage experience themselves and their environments. Illustrated through contrasting views of time, art, medicine and dance. Primal Mind identifies important distinctions between a mind rooted in respect for nature, sacred myths and rituals, and a mind that strives toward achievement, order and the desire to rise above nature.

*Source: The Primal Mind Foundation

*The screening is free and open to the public however, donations are welcome. Registration is required.
Go to www.centerhealingracism.org and access the “Events” page to register for this event.

* Parking in multi-level garage across the street on the east side of building. Enter parking lot from La Branch Street.

*Houston Community College System seeks to provide equal educational opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, or disability.